

WRITING THROUGH MEMOIR A RESTORATIVE JUSTICE TOOL

Formerly Incarcerated Writers to Read for Students at QCC

This presentation describes how incarcerated women use guided memoir writing to connect with their past and begin to dream of beginning new chapters in their lives, as they dare audiences in prison and out to care about what has happened to them.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 4 1 - 3 PM S-112

MEET Herstory facilitators who have worked with nearly a thousand imprisoned women and correction officers who have been impacted by this publication (source: herstory.org)

Join us for readings, Q&A and audience interaction

Sponsored by: Freshman Academy for Liberal Arts/Criminal Justice Program

