

Painting by Gwynne Duncan

Herstory Writers Network presents

Freedom Forum 2026

Save the date for an afternoon of sharing stories in community

Saturday, October 3rd

2:00 – 5:00 pm • Program begins promptly at 2:30 pm

Wyandanch Plaza, Wyandanch, NY

Next to the train station

About Freedom Forum

Since 2017, Herstory's annual Freedom Forum held in Wyandanch Plaza has brought memoirs from our workshops into the community, giving writers a chance to share stories that speak to the issues of our time and invite audiences to reflect and take action.

Scan here or visit
<https://www.herstorywriters.org/freedom-forum-2026> for more information!

Learn more about Herstory

www.herstorywriters.org

@herstory\_writers\_network

herstory.writers

contactus@herstorywriters.org

Herstory Writers Network's mission is to transform lived experiences into written memoirs powerful enough to change hearts, minds, and policies.

Special thanks to Suffolk County Office of Cultural Affairs, New York State Council on the Arts, New York Community Trust, Long Island Unitarian Universalist Fund, and the Wyandanch Plaza Association.

30 years of memoir-writing in community to spark empathy, healing & action