CIVIL RIGHTS

and the moments that made us

SATURDAY, MARCH 20TH,
3:30- 5:30 PM EASTERN TIME, VIA ZOOM

Please join us for the first of a series of events celebrating the 25th anniversary of Herstory Writers Workshop, as we reach across the nation in this time of the double pandemic (the virus and racism) that has ignited young activists around the slogan “I Can’t Breathe”—the battle cry behind Black Lives Matter.

Modeling how we work

A memoir beginning by Marvin McMoore Jr.

Join in one of Herstory's signature experiences, through an immersion in shaping the "Page One Moment" before a live Zoom audience, town hall style, culminating in a call to/for action

We thank the Winthrop Rockefeller Foundation and the Jacob Volkman Human Rights Fellowship Program for helping us bring our dream of creating a nationwide network of fellows and workshop facilitators trained to answer the call of the moment, one story at a time

FUND FOR THE FUTURE

CELEBRATING HERSTORY:
ADDRESSING THE CRITICAL ISSUES OF THE DAY
AND FOR 25 YEARS INTO THE FUTURE

Help us realize our dream of creating a nationwide network of fellows and workshop facilitators trained to answer the call of the moment, one story at a time.
